October Meeting

Because of a meeting conflict with the Libero Pensiero Society in Wallingford, there was no October Assembly 127 meeting.

NEMCON XXXI

NEMCON is set and registration is under way. Registration opened on October 15th for NEMCON 31. We have a great lineup for lectures and a great show planned for the evening show. In addition to Saturday, for all that are staying at the hotel on Friday night we have Peter Samelson performing Friday night, this is a must see show.

Our lecturers are Nathan Kranzo, David Acer and Banachek. Nathan is a full time entertainer who has received international acclaim for his performances, writing, creative consulting. David is an award-winning writer, comedian, and inventor of magic tricks who has done crazy things on television shows around the world. Banachek is the Man Behind the Mystery, described as the "Cream of the Crop" when it comes to entertainers, Banachek is the world's leading mind reader.

Rounding out our entertainment for the evening show is "The Magic of Lyn"; Lyn Dillies who is a master illusionist has mesmerized audiences of all ages throughout the U.S. and Canada for over two decades. Hailed as the country's finest female magician. We always try to find a youth to be in the show and we have another good one this year, he is part of the SYM in the Boston area. His name is Jonah Conlin and for three years in a row, in competitions against dozens of talented teen magicians from around the world, Jonah has placed in the top four at the prestigious Tannen's Magic Camp

Please look at our web site at www.ctNEMCON.com for more details about the convention, the entertainers, registration, the hotel or any other questions you may have about NEMCON.
