

ASSEMBLY 127 ENJOYS END OF SUMMER PICNIC

Assembly 127 held its picnic at the home of Al Palmero at his lakeside home in Middlefield, Conn. on September 14, a perfect day with a hint of fall weather in the air. Because it was a busy Saturday for many members, a small group enjoyed good food and close-up magic. Host Al served up picnic fare on his large grill and we all enjoyed desserts which we brought to add the delicious lunch.

Our card star Adam Parisi shared some of his newest routines around the picnic table and President Jeff Doskopos presented entertaining paper money magic. One routine involved a two-dollar bill which Jeff changed to two single dollar bill and then back to a single two dollar bill.

Thanks Al Palmero for your generous hospitality in hosting our picnic. Dave Wyskiel left to attend the UConn football game to be played that evening and Jeff Doskopos was looking forward to the next day's New York Giants matchup with the Denver Broncos.

The fall season is here and Assembly 127 has a busy schedule coming up. We are looking forward to next month's lecture by Aldo Colombini. NEMCON chairman Bill Hoagland is working to complete the program for our annual one-day magic conference next March.
